Superb Collection of Roman and Grecian Coins.

This Collection is known to be greatly superior to any in America, and it is also known that there are very few in Europe which are actually superior, and those in the hands of crowned heads or national collections. The collection has been fully sixty-five years forming, and has cost in money six thousand dollars, exclusive of the vast amount of time and labor expended. Persons wishing to ascertain their exceeding rarity and intrinsic value, can easily do so by referring to the standard Catalogue of Mionnet.
